

Name _____

Date _____

Adverbs

An adverb is a word that gives more meaning to a verb.
It tells how.

Our feet moved easily. (how)
The snow is falling quickly. (how)

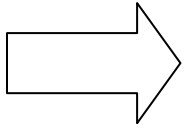

Read each of the sentences below.
Underline the adverb that tells how.

1. Mary angrily took the toy from her brother.
2. Jamie tenderly kissed the baby on the forehead.
3. Kathy quietly took the pencil from the teacher's desk.
4. Darlene lazily watched television.
5. Becky yelled dramatically at her friends.
6. The dog barked loudly at the neighbors.
7. The squirrel slowly climbed the tree.
8. My sister accidentally forgot her homework.

Name _____

Date _____

Adverbs

An adverb is a word that gives more meaning to a verb.
It tells when.

We walked daily. (when)

The snow falls occasionally. (when)

Read each of the sentences below.
Underline the adverb that tells when.

1. I usually meet my friends after school.
2. My mom frequently tells me to make my bed.
3. I have to wash the dishes daily.
4. We regularly eat lunch at the same table.
5. Tommy rarely wakes up on time.

Now, read the following sentences. Underline the adverb and circle the correct word telling whether the adverb tells how or when/how much.

- | | | |
|---------------------------------------|-----|------|
| 1. Ben and Jim rarely go the parties. | how | when |
| 2. I accidentally lost my retainer. | how | when |
| 3. We never forget our homework. | how | when |
| 4. She slowly exited the stage. | how | when |

Name _____

Date _____

Adverbs Questions

An adverb is a word that gives more meaning to a verb.
It tells how and when.

Use each of the adverbs below in a sentence.

1. never

2. always

3. frequently

4. loudly

5. rapidly

6. tenderly

Adverbs Answers

Page 1:

1. Mary angrily took the toy from her brother.
2. Jamie tenderly kissed the baby on the forehead.
3. Kathy quietly took the pencil from the teacher's desk.
4. Darlene lazily watched television.
5. Becky yelled dramatically at her friends.
6. The dog barked loudly at the neighbors.
7. The squirrel slowly climbed the tree.
8. My sister accidentally forgot her homework.

Page 2:

1. I usually meet my friends after school.
2. My mom frequently tells me to make my bed.
3. I have to wash the dishes daily.
4. We regularly eat lunch at the same table.
5. Tommy rarely wakes up on time.

- | | | |
|--|-----|------|
| 1. Ben and Jim rarely go the parties. | how | when |
| 2. I accidentally lost my retainer. | how | when |
| 3. We never forget our homework. | how | when |
| 4. She slowly exited the stage. | how | when |

Page 3: Answers may vary.