

Name _____

Date _____

Capitalization

Knowing when to capitalize letters is one of the hardest things to learn.

By now, you should know that you always capitalize the first letter of every sentence. People's names should always be capitalized. You should also know to always capitalize the letter "I" when you are using it to talk about yourself.

The res tricky.

You do to you

For exa

You wo say "I h

Names
contine

Some e

The Em

The Eiffel Tower.

Seattle

Nebraska

Asia

LESSON PREVIEW

Please sign in or register first to view
the full printable worksheet.

Click here

You capitalize official titles, but not jobs.

For example:

doctor

lawyer

President of the United States

Queen of England

Name _____

Date _____

Capitalization (Cont'd)

You should capitalize the days of the week and the months of the year, even days that are super special like the Fourth of July, but never seasons.

For example:

Sunday
December
winter

You don't

For example: English
math history
Spanish

You don't you include

You don't

For example:

fourth grade
sixth grade freshman

LESSON PREVIEW

Please sign in or register first to view
the full printable worksheet.

Click here

SS

Name _____

Date _____

Capitalization Questions

Circle the words in the following sentences that should be capitalized but aren't.

Underline the words in the following sentences that are incorrectly capitalized.

If the sentence is correct, do nothing.

1) I wen

2) my G

3) She t

4) We w

5) I love

6) the fo

7) This ye

8) I won
Fourt

9) I can't wait until I go to Middle School.

10) I am going to study history, Math, english and Music.

11) mr. haskell is the music teacher.

12) He teaches the high school kids music too.

LESSON PREVIEW

Please sign in or register first to view
the full printable worksheet.

Click here